SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS:

Miscellaneous Information

Training sessions -the training sessions held at Summer Camp will cover a variety of topics including specialized self-defense, traditional and creative forms, dynamic breaking, sparring and weaponry.

Weapons Training - We will be using practice weapons. In addition, students will get to keep their weapon after camp is over!!

Swimming - We will be spending part of the afternoon on Saturday at a local swimming pool. Children must stay with Camp Counselors the whole time! (PARENTS: This section of the camp is VERY well supervised, with plenty of camp counselors!)

Park Training - We will be visiting one of the local parks on Saturday to cook out and hold one of our training sessions.

Korean Dinner - Students will have the chance to eat one of the most popular Korean dishes, Bulgogi, along with some common side dishes. Chopsticks? Absolutely!

Hangul 101 - Campers will be instructed about the Korean language and how to say some Korean words and phrases.

Movie Time - Students are invited to bring their favorite movies to share with the other campers. Movies must be rated G or PG.

Traditional Tae Kwon Do....

Each summer, there is a time-honored tradition of summer camp weekend that students, ages 5 to 14, have the opportunity to train, play and hang out with the Instructors for 3 days. Throughout this weekend students not only get to enhance their martial arts training through some more traditional training methods, but they also will have a unique opportunity to bond with their classmates as well as with their Instructors. This summer's camp will offer classes in traditional Tae Kwon Do, as well as special self-defense techniques and weaponry. In addition, the students will be learning about Korean culture, eating traditional Korean Food and learning about the Korean language!

Learn some Korean!!
